UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, IRVINE
CENTER FOR OCCUPATIONAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH

GRAND ROUNDS

Target Audience - Occupational medicine practitioners, primary care practitioners and other healthcare professionals who desire further training in occupational and environmental medicine.

Purpose - The COEH Grand Rounds consist of current concept lectures on the assessment and management of occupational and environmental health issues. Current research findings will be described, current landmark research will be discussed and in selected cases, relevant journal articles or other materials may also be distributed.

SPEAKER: Thomas E. McKone, Ph.D.
Deputy Department Head
Indoor Environment Department
Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory

TOPIC: From background to meltdown: Health consequences of radiation exposures to workers and the general public

PLACE: Center for Occupational and Environmental Health
University of California, Irvine
5201 California Avenue, Suite 100
Irvine, CA 92617
949-824-8641

DATE / TIME: August 9, 2011, from 6:00 P.M to 7:00 P.M

Educational Objectives:

- Summarize core competencies in occupational and environmental medicine as identified by the American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine.
- Describe strategies to assess and manage occupational and environmental health risks in the individual, workplace, and community.
- Cite current research findings in the field of occupational and environmental medicine.
- Discuss key issues in the delivery of occupational and environmental medicine care, including awareness of the workers' compensation system, occupational safety and health law, and occupational and environmental health regulation.

Accreditation Statement:
The University of California, Irvine College of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.
Designation Statement:
The University of California, Irvine School of Medicine designates this educational activity for a maximum of 2 AMA PRA category I Credits (tm). Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
Disclosure Statement:
Dr. McKone has disclosed that he does not have any agreement, financial arrangements or affiliation which could be perceived as a potential conflict of interest in his presentation. Dr.McKone has further disclosed that he will not be discussing the use of any unlabeled drugs or devices in his presentation.
Course Director/Planners: As course director and planners Ulrike Luderer, MD, PhD, MPH, Dean Baker, MD, MPH, and Leslie Israel, DO, MPH, have no affiliations, arrangements or financial agreements which could be perceived as a potential conflict of interest.
The Committee further discloses the use of any unlabelled / unapproved drugs or devices.
ADA Statement:
We comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act and will make every reasonable effort to accommodate requests. For special requests, please contact us at least 4 days prior to the meeting.
California Assembly Bill 1195
This activity is in compliance with California Assembly Bill 1195 which requires continuing medical education activities with patient care components to include curriculum in the subjects of cultural and linguistic competency. For specific information regarding Bill 1195 and definitions of cultural and linguistic competency, please visit the CME web site at www.cme.uci.edu.

Please call if you need directions or would like to receive this information by email.
Contact – Amelia Ventura at 949-824-8685 or venturaa@uci.edu